Ref: Call for nomination 2021- 2023
One Member Vacancy position on the C-CMBC

To: National Representatives of IFCC National Society Members
Representatives of IFCC Corporate Members

The Education and Management Division (EMD) is a key resource for all members of IFCC. EMD facilitates the development of managerial skills, supports educational activities in laboratory medicine and offers critiques, advice and cutting-edge expertise on issues and problems related to laboratory management, teaching and education. EMD provides many of these educational, teaching and consultative services through its Committees.

We are inviting nominations for one Member position on the Committee on Clinical Molecular Biology Curriculum (C-CMBC) for the term of office 2021-2023 as one vacancy has arisen.

Individuals applying for this position should have extensive experience in the area of work of the Committee. The participation in this committee demands at least 10 days per year in travelling worldwide to teach in both the C-CMBC basic and advanced courses.

C-CMBC meets in general once per year.
